Product Description

The dead are rising! This blasphemous work brings the shambling menace of the undead into the spotlight of your campaign. Should the heroes find themselves facing ghostly hordes, they will find the tools to fight the undead here. Of course, they could also find themselves on the other side, existing as ghosts, ghouls, corpses, mummies, skeletons, vampires or zombies! In the pages of this book you'll find new hauntings and information on the lands of the Lost Omens campaign background world that are haunted by undead in short, as a GM you'll find everything you need to make undead part of your next adventure! This includes an extensive bestiary with numerous variants of the classic undead and an adventure focussing on the awakening of an undead threat.
