Product Description

A crown to rule them! The first great, coherent series of adventures for Pathfinder returns for you to experience in 2nd Edition! The village of Falkengrund in northernmost Andoran is no stranger to danger, but in dark vaults a threat arises that only heroes can master. Hungry undead, nasty goblins and sinister necromancers are just some of the enemies that may soon haunt the lumberjack village - but none is as dangerous as the goblin king himself!

In this 128-page hardcover, you'll find revised and expanded versions of the classic adventures Falkengrund's Last Hope, The Goblin King's Crown and Hungry are the Dead, along with a new, concluding chapter in the saga. Can the heroes save Falkengrund from the Goblin King, or will the vaults and their malevolent inhabitants become the tomb of the next generation of heroes?

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.

This volume contains:

- A four-part adventure campaign for 1st-6th level heroes
- A guide to the lumberjack village of Falkengrund
- 15 new magic items and other treasures
- 8 old acquaintances - classic monsters, which now appear for the first time for Pathfinder 2E
