Product Description

The universal game master umbrella offers transparent compartments for your game documents on three horizontally arranged elements on both the front and the back. The umbrella comes with six matching HeXXen 1733 2te inserts in A4 format, with all the important tables to help the HeXXen Master run an adventure. On the total of three inner pages of the umbrella, important information on the core rules, combat rules, expansion rules and more are clearly summarised, so that tedious searching in books is a thing of the past. Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
