Product Description

Adventures on the EdgeAs the Phoenix Empire pushes further into barbarian space, its explorers, knights, missionaries, traders, spies and dissidents rediscover worlds that were once part of humanity's spacefaring commonwealth and were lost during the Fall. The centuries that have passed have changed these systems and their inhabitants considerably. Will reconnecting with them bring prosperity or danger? Some of these world secrets threaten to challenge the power of the Imperial throne and even the souls of known world inhabitants. Lost Worlds describes nine star systems of the Lost Worlds that were cut off from the Known Worlds after the fall of the Second Republic a millennium ago: Antioch, Eridol, Heavens Ridge, Kun Lun, Lamorak, Novgorod, Pandora, Sargasso and Twilight. Also included are: the Nizdharim, the tentacled molluscs of Hargard; the Zgo, sentient energy beings; the mutant Qabirim superintelligents; and many alien creatures encountered in barbarian space. Finally, there's the Emberhawk, a fast freighter favoured by traders in fringe worlds and equipped with deck plans.
