Product Description

Easy enough for a beginner to use, fast enough for a gamer, yet capable enough for the best painters in the world - Warpaints Fanatic is a high-quality acrylic paint for models and miniatures. The paints feature an insanely pigment-dense formulation set in a premium resin base with proprietary stabilizers to ensure smooth, easy application. The range includes over 200 colours designed in Flexible Colour Triad families that make colour selection easy and diverse while still being comprehensive.
