Product Description

Product information "DSA - Rahjakavaliers-Vademecum" "It is your task to dispel the fog of discord and instead let laughter resound anew. People should be able to see the lifeblood and passion that guide you in your daily work. So you see - the members of the Order are not invisible fighters, as we know it from the noble guards. You are the rose bush that shows the world its radiant petals, but protects them with its thorns ..." -Docent Rahjamanda to a young Rahja Cavalier, Belhanka, 1043 BF The Rahja Cavaliers are an order of passionate followers of the Rahja Church. They serve the Beautiful Goddess as guardians of temples and protectors of the consecrated and are exemplary in their etiquette, manners and fighting. The Vademecum of the Rahja Cavaliers describes from the perspective of a member of the order how the Rahja Cavaliers came into being, what ranks there are, how the cavaliers are trained and what view a Rahja Cavalier has of the world and other gods. The vade mecum is rounded off with suggestions for the design of a Rahja cavalier.
