Product Description

Warpaints Fanatic is the new gold standard of miniature paint: it is a high-quality acrylic paint with an insanely pigment-dense formulation set in a premium resin base with proprietary stabilizers. This new design and formulation ensure intense pigmentation, unparalleled coverage, and smooth and easy application. A paint range that is easy enough for a beginner to use, fast enough for a gamer, yet capable enough for the best painters in the world. Whether you are a gamer looking to quickly get your miniatures to tabletop quality, a dedicated hobbyist refining your techniques, or a professional painter creating your next masterpiece, Warpaints Fanatic offers the quality and performance you need.
