

Item no.: 385073

US26110 - DSA - Efferd Vademecum

from 15,47 EUR

Item no.: 385073
shipping weight: 0.20 kg Manufacturer: Ulisses Spiele

Product Description

"The face of the god himself, however, is changeable like weather and waves. Like the course of a river that forges the right path, various images of the god have turned out to be true."?from the writings of St AdmaresWho are the daughters of the Gish? What is the wording of the prayer of the last ebb? Can an Efferd devotee cast the fire blessing? What actions does he perform during the boat blessing? What does the wind of the Church of the Whimsical mean? Are there even sects that worship the winds alone? How unified is the Brotherhood of Winds and Waves and why does it call itself a brotherhood, even though there are also female Efferd consecrators?This volume provides answers to such questions, supplementing and deepening the texts from Paths of the Gods.The Efferd Vademecum contains a wealth of aventurian background material on the Brotherhood of Winds and Waves, the Church of Efferd. Principles, factions, history and the surges as well as a detailed description of liturgies, prayers and rituals. In addition, this volume contains valuable rules advice for players and masters on the design of talents and the role-playing portrayal of an Efferd consecrated.In short: The Efferd Vademecum presents a deep insight into the mindset and perspective of an Efferd servant.This game aid contains a wealth of further information on the Church of Efferd and the design of an Efferd consecrated and is suitable for masters and players of all experience levels.

Specifications

Scan this QR code to view the product

All details, up-to-date prices and availability

