Product Description

Your kingdom awaits! As part of the Kingmaker Adventure Path, your player characters can found and rule their own kingdom! But to do so, they must explore, pacify and map unknown regions, leading them into ancient wilderness. - And this is where this map pack comes into play! Here you'll find six large poster maps: the mysterious village of Varnburg, the oppressed city of Pitax and four hex maps of the infamous Raublande, which, when laid end to end, reveal the full extent of the campaign! Even if you don't use these cards as part of the Kingmaker Adventure Path, you can use them for any role-playing campaign!
