Product Description

The Heldentrutz is a dangerous region in the north of the Middle Kingdom. Orcs are constantly marauding through the county and threatening the villages of the human inhabitants. This booklet contains lots of useful information about the county of Heldentrutz. In particular, the locations and various landscapes, as well as the inhabitants, their habits and their beliefs, are examined in detail. This game aid also contains several scenarios for the region as well as the adventure The Girl and the Man-Eater, a supplement to the campaign The Secret of the Dragon Knight: A girl has gone missing in Düsterrode, a small village on the edge of the Dunkelmann. Has she fallen victim to the wolf pack that has settled in the area? Or is her disappearance linked to the black furs of the Gharrachai tribe, who are a constant threat to the people of Heldentrutz? Or is it no coincidence that the girl disappeared at the same time as the Bleakroden discovered traces of a man-eater prowling around their village? Only the heroes can find out the truth and save the girl.
