Product Description

Xaver Mayer works as a freelance artist in Landau/Pfalz, his distinctive works are known through a multitude of exhibitions and publications.

Normally, the protagonists of his pictures land in the varnish of the copper plate, enjoy an etching bath and the smell of turpentine before, carefully painted with copper ink, they make their trip through the etching press to dry contentedly on soft handmade paper afterwards.

For the game "HEER MA UFF!!" and this accompanying puzzle with the funniest motifs, however, his art finds itself on a completely new medium.
