Product Description

Test the ice and face the dangers of Cais Adarra, a steep mountain range shrouded in eternal winter. Arm yourself, gather your strength and lead your expeditions through a hostile environment of ice and snow. Make your way to the heart of the mountain and search for answers locked in the ice. Altered is an innovative trading card game set in a rich, colourful and modern fantasy universe. Create your own adventure, choose a faction and lead your expeditions through an ever-changing world. Explore the world of Altered, collect rare and unique cards and be the first to discover what the Altered universe has in store for you! Boosters and displays are ideal for collecting rare and unique Altered cards or for drafting with your friends! Whether you're looking for new cards to complete your collection or the perfect card to add to your deck, boosters are full of surprises, with every eighth booster containing a unique card. The Altered: Trial of Ice booster display contains 36 booster packs. Each booster pack contains 1 hero card, 3 rare cards, 8 common cards and 1 token containing a unique card. A rare card can be replaced by a unique card (12.5 % probability). 2 players 13+ age 20+ minutes Base game - Publisher: Equinox Game content - Booster: 36
