Product Description

The fourth corporate war is over and the big boys have retreated to their corners to lick their wounds. This leaves everyone else to fend for themselves in a devastated world. And that's a good thing. Because you have interface plugs in your wrists, metal in your limbs and chips in your skull. You're wired, loaded with chrome and ready to push the envelope. The world out there is full of possibilities. Maybe this time you can do more than just save yourself. Maybe. The Cyberpunk Red starter set is the perfect introduction to the latest edition of the classic role-playing game Cyberpunk and includes: - A book with all the essential rules needed to get started right away.- A book with background knowledge of the world and an adventure.- Six customisable characters.- A set of Cyberpunk dice (two D10s and four D6s).- Cards and cardboard stands to bring the world of Cyberpunk to life!
